USER MANUAL

Welcome to Computer Accessories Information System. This manual contains all the information for guiding for the use of the system.

SYSTEM OVERVIEW

Computer Accessories Information System is an Inventory Management System. The system adds a new item and delete a selected item from the system. For adding a new item, the user has given the proper text field, radio button, checkbox etc. to insert data and button to the add the items. The system also provide functionality for searching items based on price. A system contains text field to search the item. The system also has a function for querying how many appliances are available in a category. This function is implemented through a Combo box to provide the search criteria. The System has a file menu to open an exiting file. All the item which are add are display or stored in the table. After running this program login box appears where user have to give their credentials for logging in.

For Logging In

- The program asks for the credentials from the user.
- Enter Username Admin in the text field.
- Enter Password Admin in the text field.
- Click login button to login.

For Adding Item

- Enter Accessory Id of the item.
- Enter Name of the item.
- Select Manufacture of the item.
- Enter Category of the item.
- Select Price Range of the item.
- Enter Price of the item
- Select Recommendation of the item.
- Press Add Button.
- If Some typo error press Clear button to clear the text field.

Searching Accessories by Price

- Enter price of the item to search.
- Press search button to search.
- If found, Accessory details are displayed.
- If not, Not found is displayed.

Searching Accessories by Category

- Select category of the item to search.
- Press search by category button to search by category.
- If found, availability of category in the system are displayed.
- If not, Not found is displayed.

Deleting Accessories

- Select a row from the table which user want to delete.
- Press Delete button to delete the selected accessories from the system.
- If no rows found, Not found is displayed.